The Southern Mail Service.

The Savannah Inpublican finds but one serious objection to the Montgomery Constitution, and that is concerning mail service:

After the 1st March, 1863, it is provided that our mail facilities shall be confined to such as the receipts of the Department will pay for. This we believe an error, and have not the slightest doubt but that experience will prove the correctness of the opinion. This question, though, has already been fully argued in these columns, and it is unnecessary to repeat what has been said. It would have been wise, et least, to have left the whole question open, to be regulated by iaw, according to the lights

PRESIDENT JEFF. DAYIS.—The so-called Southern Confederacy, was conceived in sin, shapes in iniquity, and born out of due time, bucause it was rushed into the world with indecent haste, expressly to prevent the people from beholding its deformatics. No man, living or dead, is better adapted to preside over such that the people of the people over such that the people of the people of the people over such that the people of the people of the people over such that the people over such that the people over such that the people of the people over such that the people over the people ov russ trict constructions, after receiving an order from the War Department, on the 9th of January, instructing film "so be vigilant," and to "co-operate with the commanding officer at Fort Barraness." on the 12th of January surrendered $500,000,000. bloot, he as richly deserve to be along old John Brown did.

"The bonds authorized by the Legislature for the purpose of continuing the construction of the building cannot be sold, and so the work is suspended. Many of the hands had left already, so that there were but fifty-two remaining in the yard to be discharged. The contractor for turning the granile bulgsters fluided by the contractor for the grante capitals and marble work have been reduced from one hundred and twelve to about seventy, and they awaitall going on, but with much uncertainty are they long. On the first of Cotober last, the total force at work at the quarries and in the yard employed by the Sasse and the contractors amounted to 498, of which 200 were negroes. This is now reduced to less than 100, with prospect of still further reduction. The founderles, machine whops and printing offices are working a smaller number of hands than usual, and the railroads are cutting down expenses. The Greenville road has reduced the salaries of all its employees, and the Charlotte road has discontinued the sight express trals and put its five passenger conductors or reduced pay, running one trip a week each, bestde reducing all the salaries, from the President down."

The following is from the Washington Stor.
The Treasury Department have advices that the light house supply vessel has been soized at Galveston harbor by the Texan Disusionists. This vessel (the Guthrie) is employed in supplying light houses with oil, wicks and other store.

She sailed from New Bedford, Massachtisetts, Nov. 8, 1850, with a full cargo of supplies for one year for all the light houses and fight vessels between Amelia Island, Georgia, and the Rio Granda. Texas. The moster inchange of this vessel suched the buy at Galveston. Texas, on the 5th of March instant, for the purpose of delivering theyear's supply of oil, dec, to the Bulwar Point and other light houses in the vicinity. While he was obsent from the vassel attending to the delivery of the supplies, the Guthrie was boarded by a man calling himself Gap. Rogers, and several men accompanied by an individual calling himself Gen. Sherman, claiming to set by authority and under the orders of the "Committee of Safety at Galveston." These men got the vessel surfers and recrosseded with her

"We had the pleasure yesterday of a call from Judge James Saffle, who has just returned from a visit to Texas. The information he communicates, and which he obtained from pursonal observation and conversation, is cheering to the patriotic heart. Fraternal feeling is not extinct—hatred has not driven out kindness—the remembrance of the past giories and progress of the country is not obtained—the stars and stripes are still dear to the eyes—and the Union is still regarded with love. All that is wanting to restore the relations between the sections is to hold out the hand of friendship to them, and give them assurances that they shall be regarded as brethers, and not as barbarians upon whom the executations of the civilized world should ress. Judge Safin says that had Congress adopted Mr. — "SE—" You will excuse me from saying who I shall advise with, sir."

During the campaign if the valley of Mexico he was constantly in the addle, and bore a most conspicuous part When the battle of Cherubusco seemed to be going against our arms, he led the Rifies in lines gallant manner in an attack on the one may which decided the fate of the day. A Molino del Rey he was ordered to drive off large body of earlier which was endeavoring to outflank Worth's division. To de this, he was obliged to brave the fire of some thou sands of the enemy's infantry, by which nearly one-half of his men and horses were disabled With only about 200 men left he dashed at he honeers, and sent them flying in utter confaction, to return no more that day. A mon to yet rate and dashing charge was never made For the conduct in this battle he was breveted Colonel, having previously received the bre

The following from an entermal publicars is a very fair resume of the proceedings of the Convention:

The voice of Missouri has been spoken through the Convention called for that purpose. That voice pronounced that further concessions should be made with a view to a restoration of the union of States definitely. These concessions should have the Crittendea resolutions for their basis; declares that reculon would be imperiled by the use of force on the part of the Federal Government against the people of the second State: and specially advises that federal troops be withdrawn from the States where collisions threatens; firm and steady in its expressions of devotien to the idea of retinden; declares for a National Convention, in hope that its desilberations may result in measures which will seeing pronounced there is at present no adequate cause for retiring from the Union, and refuses at this time to piedge Missouri to eccession. Even in the event the road of the Border States seeden or no plan of Richard's Iron Corn Sheller, the inference may be drawn from the action of the Convention, that as Missouri is in favor of every possible mode of adjustment calculated to call back the seceded States, and in default of obtaining such measure, favors steps for bringing about a peaceful separation between the Union and Southern Confederacy. Also, her mind is in a state of anspense as to the question of retiring from the Union, when the Appending of contingencies which have been mentioned.

87. Louis, March 22.—In the Convention yesterday Mr. Henderson, chairman of the committee to whom was referred the communication of the Commissioners from Georgia, presented a long report, declaring against Secession, and exhering Georgia and other seceding States to desist from the revolutionary measures commenced by them and unlie their voice with ours in restoring peace and cementing the Union. In other regards the report does not materially differ from that of the Commistion of the Commission, but recognizing the right of revolution; while deploring the sectional disregard of duty, we will not depair of future justice till our complaints shall have been specifically and unavailingly submitted to the Northern people; that property in slaves is a constitutional right, and if the Federal Government impairs that right, the slaveholding States should be found united.
